About Us

Let's Talk Public Health is a remote-work, digital-first consulting company based in Washington, DC. Since our inception, we've aimed to build skills, inspire new thinking, and explore innovative methods for public health communication and marketing. We provide resources, products, and services to help public health students, professionals, and organizations to effectively and creatively engage with people around public health topics and issues.

Position Summary

Let's Talk Public Health seeks highly motivated public health students and early career professionals to join our Experiential Learning Program. This program offers practical experience and skill development in public health communication and marketing. As a Brand and Public Relations Intern, you will play a crucial role in shaping our public image and promoting our mission. You will have the opportunity to collaborate with our leadership team and other interns to ensure consistent messaging and branding.

Responsibilities

You will be working on the following tasks and deliverables.

- Writing: Draft 1-2 press releases, talking point briefs, and media pitches per month.
- Designing: Outline and design 1 brand material.
- Event Planning: Assist with planning and executing 1 event, including media coordination.
- Research: Monitor, analyze, and document media coverage and sentiment each month.
- Collaboration: Collaborate with the CEO, CMO, and other cross-functional teams to ensure consistent messaging and branding across all communication and marketing channels.

Essential Work Attributes

You must have the following work attributes to succeed in this internship.

- Independence and Self-Drive: You must be able to complete assigned tasks and deliverables with minimal supervision and seek guidance and support when needed.

- Proactivity: You must manage your own work schedule and anticipate if you will have any issues meeting deadlines. You must also come to meetings prepared and ready.
- Digital Competence: You must be equipped with a reliable computer, high-speed internet connection, and necessary software/tools for virtual work. You must also be able to learn to use new tools and technology.
- Attention to Detail: You must always review all your work for typos, grammatical errors, and factual inaccuracies before submitting it.

Required Skills and Qualifications

You must have the following skills and qualifications to succeed in this internship.

- Be currently enrolled in or have graduated from (in the past 3 years) an undergraduate or graduate program at a university or college in the United States. (required)
- Be currently studying or working in public health. (strongly preferred)
- Be proficient in using Canva and Google Workspace. (required)
- Have previous experience with media relations, public relations, branding, and event planning. (strongly preferred)
