

LET'S TALK PUBLIC HEALTH

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING PROGRAM

Position: Creative Media and Productions Intern Type: Part-Time (5-10 hrs/week)
Supervisor: Monique Thornton, CEO Compensation: Unpaid; academic credit
Location: Remote or hybrid

About Us

Let's Talk Public Health is a remote-work, digital-first consulting company based in Washington, DC. Since our inception, we've aimed to build skills, inspire new thinking, and explore innovative methods for public health communication and marketing. We provide resources, products, and services to help public health students, professionals, and organizations to effectively and creatively engage with people around public health topics and issues.

Position Summary

Let's Talk Public Health seeks highly motivated public health students and early career professionals to join our Experiential Learning Program. This program offers practical experience and skill development in public health communication and marketing. As a Creative Media and Productions Intern, you will have the opportunity to actively contribute to various Let's Talk Public Health creative projects, including our YouTube series and the Disaster Diaries of Rhyane Jane audio drama.

Responsibilities

You will be working on the following tasks and deliverables.

- Creative Development: Collaborate with the CEO and other interns to produce and upload 1 new YouTube video per month.
- Scriptwriting: Use AI to write 1 script for 1 YouTube video per month.
- Video Filming: Participate in the filming of 1 YouTube video per month, including on-camera appearances.
- Video Editing: Use AI to edit 1 YouTube video per month, including a rough cut and final cut with added visual effects, animations, transitions, graphics, and music.
- Audio Editing: Convert 1 audio recording of the Disaster Diaries of Rhyane Jane audio drama into a YouTube video, adding visual and sound effects that align with the story's plot points and character arcs.
- Collaboration: Collaborate with the CEO, CMO, and other cross-functional teams to ensure the timely promotion of our creative media and productions on our communication and marketing channels.

Essential Work Attributes

You must have the following work attributes to succeed in this internship.

- Independence and Self-Drive: You must be able to complete assigned tasks and deliverables with minimal supervision and seek guidance and support when needed.
- Proactivity: You must manage your own work schedule and anticipate if you will have any issues meeting deadlines. You must also come to meetings prepared and ready.
- Digital Competence: You must be equipped with a reliable computer, high-speed internet connection, and necessary software/tools for virtual work. You must also be able to learn to use new tools and technology.
- Attention to Detail: You must always review all your work for typos, grammatical errors, and factual inaccuracies before submitting it.

Required Skills and Qualifications

You must have the following skills and qualifications to succeed in this internship.

- Be currently enrolled in or have graduated from (in the past 3 years) an undergraduate or graduate program at a university or college in the United States. (required)
- Be currently studying or working in public health. (strongly preferred)
- Be proficient in using Canva and Google Workspace. (required)
- Have previous experience with video and audio editing. (strongly preferred)

Application Instructions

- For more information and to apply for the position, please visit our website: <https://www.letstalkpublichealth.com/experiential-learning-program.html>

Let's Talk Public Health

www.letstalkpublichealth.com

elp@letstalkpublichealth.com

We're all about equal opportunity. All applicants will be considered without attention to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, veteran or disability status.